

2 11 June 2006.

The Brockley Max festival is a community based arts and music festival which is about to go into its fourth year.

It's been going from strength to strength since 2003. Last year we were featured on the BBC London web, and in Time Out as part of their London Comedy Festival. There were 35 events in 2005, from art exhibitions to gigs, comedy, installations and our own radio station....

.....And we need volunteers for this year. We're looking for:

Assistant Festival Coordinator

- PR Officer
- Website Manager
- Art Exhibitions Coordinator
- Music Events Coordinator
- Other Events Coordinator
- Programmes / Publicity / Posters Coordinator.

We also need people to generate ideas for new and exciting events, and artists musicians and performers who'd like a showcase for their talents.

The work's quite light until around May, when it picks up a bit. But it's not going to kill you. And it'll look great on your CV.

You can email Moira [who's lovely] at: moira@brockleymax.co.uk

Or, call or text her on 07971 082224

You can also check out our website at www.brockleymax.co.uk

You will, in addition, be expected to attend some of London's best parties. It's obligatory.
